The witness was also sure that the shot fired by young McArdle was the Stocks were lower in the early trading partly in sympathy with London and the absence of buying orders from that centre. On very moderate sales American Sugar fell 1.38, to 194; Burlington & Quincy 7-8, to 79.3-4; Louisville & Nash ville 1, to 49.1-2; Missouri Pacific 3-4, to 39.3-4; Cordage 11-8, to 24.1-2; Cordage preferred 11-2, to 48; Lead 1-2, to 40.3-4 Reading 1, to 17.1-4; United State Leather preferred 1-2, to 67; St. Paul 1-2 to 62.1-2, and Northern Pacific preferred 1, to 18.5-8.

At the lower range of quotations some of the traders covered up, and a raily of 1-4 to 1.1-4 ensued. Sugar rose 1 to 16.4 American Tobacco, 1 to 87. Denver & Rio Grande pref. 1-2 to 32.1-4; Lead, 11-to 195, and Chicago Gas, 3-4 to 63.7-8.

The stock market relapsed into dulnes after midday and presented no special feature. The bears made rails on Distillers. Sugar, Lead and Tobacco, an succeeded in depressing these shares 1 to 1.3-4 per cent. The general list, how ever, held up well, and very little lon stock came out.
